CLEANING SYSTEMS LIMITED TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

- 1.0 Credit will only be extended to customers who have completed and had approved a Cleaning Systems Ltd ("CSL") account application, subject to a credit limit to be set by CSL.
- 1.1 Customers who do not have a current account will be required to pay when goods are picked up or prior to delivery.
- 1.2 Account customers are required to pay all accounts no later than the 20th of the month following the date of the invoice. Late payment will result in forfeiting any discounts which may apply to the particular invoice. CSL reserves the right to charge interest on outstanding accounts at its bank overdraft interest rate, where accounts are not paid on the due date. Any collection costs incurred will be the customers responsibility.
- 2.0 Ownership and title to the goods supplied shall pass from CSL to the customer upon payment of all outstanding debts, howsoever arising and all goods shall remain the property of CSL until such outstanding accounts are paid in full.
- 2.1 Notwithstanding clause 2.0 all risks with respect to the goods supplied shall pass from CSL to the customer upon delivery of the goods to the customer or the customer's agent.
- 3.0 CSL exercises its right to contract out of the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 where goods are purchased for business purposes. Where the Consumer Guarantees Act is applicable at law to any specific transaction, these terms shall apply subject to the provisions of the Act.
- 3.1 Any advice given or instructions provided by CSL or its representatives to the customer, are given in good faith but must be fully checked and verified by the customer in the particular application in which such advice or information is to be used. All products must be pre-tested in an inconspicuous place prior to application or use. Because CSL has no control over the application or use of such advice or information, no liability is accepted by CSL in this respect.
- 3.2 Liability of CSL is limited to the repair or replacement of the goods supplied. No liability is accepted for any consequential loss or damage including loss of business or income.
- 3.3 Where product, machinery or equipment is purchased subject of a specific warranty, the terms of that warranty shall become incorporated into these terms and conditions for the purposes of that transaction but subject to these terms and conditions of trade. CSL's standard procedure for the approval and handling of warranty claims will apply in all cases.
- 4.0 The customer undertakes that where any products supplied are classified under the Toxic Substances Act 1979 or the Toxic Substances Regulations 1983 (or any other legislation), to be aware of and conform with the relevant legislation regarding the handling and use of such products and to use only according to the label instructions and safety precautions provided.
- 5.0 CSL shall not be liable for inability to supply any product due to circumstances beyond its control, Government action, or 'Force majeure'.
